Marrakech - Casablanca - Rabat - Tangier

11 Days | Departs Thursday, October 8 | Returns Sunday, October 18 | Limited Availability

Day One: Thursday, October 8

New York / Marrakech

Delegates departing from the United States will assemble this afternoon at JFK International Airport in New York for their trans-Atlantic flight to Marrakech, fondly known as the “Pearl of the South.” This unique city is a palm-lined oasis set at the foot of the High Atlas Mountains that proudly maintains its history with the medina—an old section of the city—surrounded by rose-colored walls.

Day Two: Friday, October 9

Marrakech

Upon arrival at Marrakech Menara Airport, you will be greeted by People to People International (PTPI) representative(s), and receive an airport transfer to your hotel and assistance with check-in. The delegation will enjoy a welcome cocktail at the luxurious Sofitel Marrakech Imperial Spa. With the morning arrival, delegates will gather at the hotel lobby for lunch and then enjoy the remainder of the day at their leisure and dinner on your own. Overnight at Sofitel Marrakech Imperial Spa. L

Day Three: Saturday, October 10

Marrakech

A buffet style breakfast will be provided each morning at your hotel. Following breakfast, the delegation will gather for a brief program orientation and then attend a half day sightseeing tour of famous areas including the Dar Si Said Museum, the Koutoubia Minaret, the Menara Pavillion, the Bahia Palace and the royal garden. Today’s lunch will be served in a local open-air restaurant. You will then enjoy the remainder of the afternoon at your leisure. We invite you to enjoy the pool and other outdoor activities at the hotel. Tonight’s spectacular welcome dinner will be served at Chez Ali, one of the most popular entertainment venues in Morocco. PTPI’s President/CEO, Mary Jean Eisenhower, will welcome the delegation to Morocco, and throughout the rest of the evening, you will experience authentic Berber tribal music and dancing with extraordinary entertainment from dancers, musicians, acrobats, horsemen and magicians. This evening’s program will offer an astonishing conclusion that will remind you of “Arabian Nights.” Overnight at Sofitel Marrakech Imperial Spa. BLD

Day Four: Sunday, October 11

Marrakech

Today, you will meet the children at the Dar Albir Oua Lihsane Marrakech—a new multi-functional center for young, disadvantaged children aged 12-18, who have been unable to finish their school studies. The center provides the children with accommodations, food and training to qualify for a chosen profession that will provide them with skills such as carpentry, hairdressing, ironworks, electricity and plumbing. The center accommodates 240 young people, and they work to ensure that each student will obtain a good job to live a decent life. Today's lunch will be served at the Bir Wal Ihsane Restaurant. This afternoon, you will have the opportunity to practice the art of bargaining at the biggest open-air market in Marrakech—the perfect place to buy your souvenirs and other unique items at a great price. We will rendezvous at the world renowned square, the Djemaa el Fna, located in the medina—the old town section of Marrakech. This evening, you will enjoy the sunset and people-watching from one of the roof top cafés. There, you will learn why the Djemaa el Fna is the heartbeat of Marrakech—because it is complete with food kiosks, henna artists, medicine men, snake charmers, storytellers, jugglers, musicians and acrobats. Tonight's dinner will be served at your hotel, the Sofitel Marrakech Imperial Spa. BLD

Day Five: Monday, October 12

Marrakech / Essaouira / Casablanca

Today, you will journey by motor coach to Essaouira, a picturesque port of an ancient city that shows traces of Iberian influence in its forts and towers. You will enjoy today's lunch at the Chalet de la Place, where seafood dishes come highly recommended. This afternoon, you will arrive in Casablanca. Following check-in at the hotel, delegates will enjoy a driving tour of the residential section, the old town medina, the Habous quarter and the shopping area of Casablanca. Tonight's dinner will be held at the world famous hotel, Le Royal Mansour Meridien, where we will stay for the duration of our visit in Casablanca. BLD

Day Six: Tuesday, October 13

Casablanca

This morning's sightseeing excursion will include the United Nations Square, the Royal Palace and a visit to the Hassan II Mosque, the second largest mosque in the Islamic world after Mecca in Saudi Arabia. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant in Casablanca, and you will enjoy some free time this afternoon. We will join the PTPI Casablanca, Morocco Chapter for dinner this evening and learn from chapter members more about their local programs and activities. Overnight at the Le Royal Mansour Meridien. BLD

Day Seven: Wednesday, October 14*Casablanca / Rabat

This morning, the delegation will attend two briefings: one on U.S.–Moroccan relations from representatives of the U.S. Embassy and the other from Moroccan government officials about their country’s economy, politics and education system. We will then travel to Rabat, where, upon arrival, you will enjoy lunch at an ocean view restaurant. The remainder of the day will offer you free time to relax and enjoy the amenities at your hotel. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the La Tour Hassan Hotel in Rabat. BL

Day Eight: Thursday, October 15*Rabat

Today, you will explore the great mosque, the bustling old town medina, the Hassan Tower and Mohammed V Mausoleum, as well as a drive through the ramparts and walls of mechouar—an area that encompasses the royal palace. Today’s lunch will be served at the Museum Belghazi. This afternoon, we will visit the Chellah Necropolis, the Oudaya quarter and a local museum of ancient rugs, jewelry and musical instruments. Dinner will be served at the La Tour Hassan Hotel. BLD

Day Nine: Friday, October 16*Rabat / Tangier

This morning, we will travel from Rabat to Tangier. Upon arrival, lunch will be served at a local restaurant. After check-in at the hotel, we will visit the modern new town and enjoy a beautiful drive through Tangier's California section, which is lined with estates, villas, celebrity homes and the king's summer palace. Then, we will stop at the Cap Spartel lighthouse, which marks the official convergence of the Atlantic Ocean and Mediterranean Sea. This is a perfect spot to take some photos! Delegates will also have the opportunity to ride a camel. Afterwards, we will travel to Hercules Cave, which has an entrance mirroring the shape of the African continent. Tonight, we will join the PTPI Tangier, Morocco Chapter for dinner. Overnight at the El Minzah Hotel in Tangier. BLD

Day Ten: Saturday, October 17*Tangier

Today’s tour will begin in the old town medina with a visit to the casbah and Hughes Point, where from a terrace you will be able to view snake charmers and overlook the Strait of Gibraltar. A labyrinth of roads and alleyways snake through the medina—an area that includes Le Petit Succo, Berber markets, craftsmen and the souk. Bordering the medina is the Grand Succo, St. Andrew's Church, the Old American Legation and Museum and the Mendoubia Gardens. Today’s lunch will offer traditional Moroccan cuisine and the entertainment of Andalusian and Berber musicians. You will enjoy a free afternoon. Tonight’s farewell dinner is at El Minzah Hotel. BLD
